INTRO - HELLO THERE

Inside each of us, an artist lies dormant. Whether you’re looking to develop your existing talents or discover new ones, KCAD has the class that will help you get the most out of your creative potential. From working with fused glass to learning how to throw clay on the wheel, you’ll find the perfect experience to help you find a deeper connection to the things that you hold so close to your chest. Art is an indispensable vehicle through which to view yourself and the world around you, and these classes will enable you to express how you see things in a whole new way.

Everyone is creative, but we all have different ways of sharing our creativity with others. That’s what makes art so powerful. Art making encourages innovation, collaboration, and adaptability, all of which are essential to succeeding in today’s fluid and fast-paced work environment.

Whether your goal is to learn a new skill or develop a new interest, you need a setting that encourages you to embrace new ideas and understand the perspective of others. That setting is KCAD, the place where you’re given the room, support, and resources to grow.

So what are you waiting for? Drop in, sit down, and start your journey this spring!

Session I: 14 SK D959-A
Tour cost: $240, coffee, doughnuts, and boxed lunch included
Bus leaves KCAD at 6:30 a.m. and returns at 9:30 p.m.

Travel to Oak Park, Illinois with other Wright enthusiasts for the 2014 All Wright House Walk, in honor of the 125th anniversary of Wright’s Home and Studio. You will have the opportunity to tour eight private homes, all designed by Frank Lloyd Wright and not typically open to the public, as well as the Frank Lloyd Wright Home and Studio, and Unity Temple. You will also receive an admission pass to Chicago’s Robie House in Hyde Park, which can be used any time during 2014.

Ride the shuttle buses to each house, or walk, the choice is yours. Docents are available in all buildings and along the way, to provide historic interpretation. Comfortable walking shoes and a portable stool are recommended. Bring along your favorite Wright-themed book for some lively discussions on the bus back to Grand Rapids.
